

SABAH HARVEST FESTIVAL THEME DINNER

Sabah's rich and diverse cultural heritage with this kaleidoscope display of sights and sounds from 32 different ethnic groups. This evening, the venue will be converted into a showcase of Sabahan's proud heritage. Sneak peaks into colourful 'tamus', and leisurely lifestyles of the Sabahan villages will lift the spirits and excite the senses.

Setting/ Decorations :

- ☞ Colourful buntings
- ☞ Bamboo fencing around the venue
- ☞ Table with Sabahan tabletop decorations
- ☞ Black chair covers with batik bows
- ☞ Bamboo entrance
- ☞ Banana leaves place mats
- ☞ Stall concept food counter
- ☞ Bamboo torches around venue
- ☞ Staff dressed in local ethnic costumes
- ☞ Local handicraft stalls showcasing basket weaving, traditional beads, woodcarving, traditional games, learning to dance Sumazau (a traditional dance by the Kadazans)

Join the village folks as they celebrate the end of the planting cycle of rice and people gather in villages to thank God and the spirits for a good harvest and looks forward to enjoying the bounty of the harvest. The evening is characterised by cultural performances, music, traditional dances and sumptuous food and drink in great quantities.

