

Kayaking in a Rainforest Paradise

DURATION: 3.5 HOURS

CAPACITY: MAXIMUM 40 PAX

Treat yourself to a fun-filled kayaking adventure in some of the most beautiful natural settings in Kuching! Kayak through the rainforests on a meandering river in the Bau district, about an hour's drive from Kuching. You begin your adventure in Krokong village beneath a suspension pedestrian bridge. Paddle leisurely downstream from the upper reaches of Sungei Sarawak.

Choose to float down a tributary of the Sarawak River through the tall timbers of the Sarawak rainforest or paddle out to the South China Sea on a comfortable kayak with your team and guides. The pace is leisurely and the atmosphere is intimate with rainforests and mountains at your side. Get ready for relaxation.

Watch out for the local wildlife especially a glimpse of the timid Irrawaddy dolphin. Build up an appetite in readiness for your scrumptious picnic lunch at a river clearing or secluded beach.

ENCHANCEMENTS

- 🌀 Mini competition
- 🌀 Personalised with company logo